REGINA V. SAINT. THE argument on the Crown's demurrer to defendant's pleas in defence commenced this morning before the Chief Justice. The Attorney General and Mr Pollard, Q.C., instructed by Mr Hazeland, Crown Solicitor, appeared for the Crown; Mr Hayllar, instructed by Mr J. J. Francis, appeared for the defendant. We shall withhold our report until Friday, when we shall publish the record in full, as it stands. At the opening of the proceedings, the Attorney General, after a little open colloquy between himself and the Bench, read the following letter, which he stated had been drawn up in accordance with a resolution arrived at by the Executive Council in reference to this case:-ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, Honokong, 6th February, 1869. 1.—Sir,—I think it desirable to communicate to you in writing the course which has been decided on in reference to the first of the ex-officio informations for libel filed by the Honorable Henry John Ball (while acting Attorney General) against Mr Saint, the Editor of the China Mail. 2.—The proceeding is now so far advanced that evidence "de bene esse" (which would not be available in a fresh Prosecution) has been taken and a Demurrer is pending for argument. It might, therefore seem harassing both to the complainants and to the defendant if this Prosecu tion were stopped merely to be commenced again in another form and solely on the ground that the ex-officio form of the information gives it the colour of a State templated for a moment either by this Government or that of Macao. 4.—Nevertheless, if it were intended to carry on the Trial of this information in its integrity the Defendant might reasonably complain that he was dealt with in a mode quite out of character with the spirit of the times and the intention of the Complainants themselves, for according to strict Law, the Defendant could not in my opi-

3.—That course was certainly never con-nion plead a justification, whilst the Crown in such cases neither takes nor gives costs. 5. For the purpose, however, of mitigating what under the circumstances would seem harsh, while protecting at the same time the Prerogatives of the Crown, a Plea of justification has been filed by consent and the complainants have agreed to be answerable to Mr Saint for his costs in the event of the result being in his

6.—He is thus placed in the same situation practically as if an ordinary Criminal Information for Libel were pending against

7.—For the purpose of carrying on the proceedings upon this equitable footing a locus standi will be given by the Crown to the Counsel of the Complainants, so that I may not be called on in my official capacity to take any part in the discussion of the case, although should the Prerogatives of the Crown be called in question, I shall be at once prepared to defend them. 8.—The sole object of the complainants is to kindicate the honor of Ex-Governor Amaral and as Mr Saint declines to retract certain allegations which they consider defair the point without any further 9. You will be good enough therefore of this letter.

Some conversation again ensued between the Bench and the Attorney General, and his Lordship read a reply which he had sent to the above letter, stating in effect his Lordship's opinion that the Crown could not avoid the prosecution in the manner suggested, though the Attorney General might delegate a , 30,180 substitute for himself in conducting it,

DOCKS AT SAIGON. Our readers will probably have noticed in our yesterday's issue two advertisements in the French language which have an unusual significance for Hongkong, The first, in which a prize of Francs 3000 is offered for the best design of an iron Market Hall for Saigon; is kimply/an indication of its growing importance as a centre of resort and trade; for a formal market-building is unnecessary except in large and populous cities, and a prize would not be offered for designs were the general architectural features of the town insignificant. It is however to the second advertisement that we would draw the special attention of our readers. It sets forth that it being intended to construct docks at Saigon similar to those at Whampoa, Aberdeen, and Kowloong, those desiring to "study the question on the spot" are invited to communicate promptly with the French Consul .: The importance of this announcement is great and obvious. half way house will thus be provided vessels in the South China Sea shattered by the force of a typhoon will no longer have to spend a weary month under jury masts in the endeavour to reach a port where their repairs may be effected. Saigon moreover cannot materially inter--port, though doubtless some adverse influence will be perceptible when the docks in question shall- have been completed. As regards commercial matters we may therefore argue that Hongkong will be glad to learn of the intention entertained by the Saigon residents for it may be noted that the advertisement merely says that the "Colony o Saigon desires to construct the docks, No mention is made of the Government. and it may therefore be supposed that the undertaking is, at least in part, of private nature. We cannot however forget that no scheme of this nature would be approved by that Government unless it were likely to contribute to the great end for which Saigon was founded—that of making it the French head-quarters in the extreme East. Yokohama is now it is true the chief Naval Station above Hongkong, but Saigon will naturally maintain its superior importance as a French town instead of a mere settlement. We do not profess to view this growing progress of our neighbours with any uneasiness, as our interests will always require us to keep up a preponderating force both naval and military. But we would point out to the self-sufficient advocates of retrenchsufficient as utterly ignoring the is keeping pace with the spirit of the age, and that if their views be carried out, we shall lose " prestige " (not as regards of those who oppose an undue weakening!

TO-DAY'S POLICE. Mr May on the Bench. Mrs Clarke, wife of Sergeant Clarke, of the 75th Regiment, appeared as defendant in a summons, in which Mrs Sarah Jane Moulton wife of Color-Sergeant Moulton of the same regiment, was complainant. The plaint was to the effect that Mrs Clarke did "unlawfully use threats of bodily injury towards complainant," on the 6th inst -Complainant, having been sworn, stated that she lived in the next bunk in Fletcher's Buildings to that of defendant, and that on the 6th, she heard defendant having high words with some one, and she mentioned her name two or three times. She also heard blows struck. Defendant distinctly said that she would have her (complainant) life, with a razor; she even went so far as to particularize the time, and said she would have her life that night. Complainant heard every word of what took place, and the murderous threat which Mrs Clarke had promised to herself was larded over with most indelicate oaths and curses. Complainant took up her child, and was about to go out for protection, when Sergeant Clarke asked her not to go away, as he would put his wife in the Guard-room; which he did accordingly. The Chairman having opened the meet ing by reading the notice convening the same, the Chief Justice remarked that the proposition contained in that notice wherein the Society proposed to hand over the Library, bust, and painting to the City Hall was then an understanding with Sir Hercules Robinson and the Society that the Library &c. should be handed over, on trust. to the City Committee.

Mr Stewart here reminded the Chairman that it was necessary to have two-thirds of the Society's members either present or represented before they could proceed to dis-

We learn from Silchar that the earthquake shook down the walls of the jail, and that the prisoners are now encamped in the neighbourhood of their late prison.

It is now abundantly plain that the centre of action of the disturbance must have been close to Cachar, whence the shock spread outward in all directions. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

1 AlS Medicine is universally admitted I to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution HE Undersigned hereby inti- of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may maure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most AWCETT & Co., having secured the inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that tf c nnot be conquered by any other treat-
